RAND MUTUAL ASSURANCE MOURNS TRAGIC INCIDENT AT RUSTENBURG MINES OF IMPALA PLATINUM

RMA HQ, PARKTOWN, 30 NOVEMBER 2023 - Rand Mutual Assurance (RMA), a premier social insurance organisation in the mining and metal sectors, extends its heartfelt condolences to the families affected by the recent tragic occurrence at Impala Platinum's (Implats) Rustenburg Mines. The loss of life and injuries sustained by miners on Monday afternoon has deeply devastated the entire RMA family.

According to Implats official message, eleven miners were killed and 75 were injured in the sad event. Safety and preserving of lives in the mining industry is central to RMA's fundamental values, and RMA, is dedicated to putting miners' safety and well-being first.

RMA is actively interacting with Implats stakeholders to give support and help at this difficult time in reaction to this tragedy. RMA Group CEO, Mandla Shezi, has expressed his heartfelt condolences to the afflicted families and announced the provision of resources to assist Implats' in dealing with the consequences of this tragedy.

"Monday was undeniably a very dark day for our industry. The loss of life has had a profound impact on us, and as a social insurer, we will collaborate with our Implats' partners to provide the essential support at this difficult time," added Shezi.

RMA's major purpose as a social insurer is to provide support and aid to the families of deceased mine workers, as well as to surviving miners. The company is mobilising its dedicated team to work hard in providing rehabilitation support to the injured mine workers.

As the mining community mourns the loss at Implats, RMA reiterates its commitment to building a culture of safety and resilience throughout the industry. Our thoughts are with the affected miners' families and coworkers.
